Hello, It's me Eggrypted, you may know me as a youtuber for TDS and this document will explain Megabit016's (also known as Megalodon016) sudden disappearance. Megalodon016 is a Roblox UGC creator and youtuber and this document will inform people on what led to it and what type of person he is. This is my first ever document like this so apologies if it's hard to read. It's also very difficult for me to make it given I've known Megalodon for years, appearing in many of my videos and was someone who I could call a friend with lots of mutual friends as well. However in recent days his behaviour has become absolutely unacceptable and I personally feel that he needs to be held accountable for his actions instead of him running away from problems and hoping everyone involved will forget and forgive. This isn't the first time it happened but this one was the biggest one yet.
Everyone's names but mine and Megalodon's will be censored due to privacy.

Main Question:
What happened to Megabit/Megalodon? He left every server and unfriended everyone on roblox. What's going on?

Answer: he lost 2 games of forsaken as a killer when me,mega and other mutual friend were playing together… yep… that's it.

I will expand on this situation further but to give more context I want to give more highlight to the day before mega decided to unfriend everyone.

Part 1 - Drunk Megalodon Actions (12th and 13th of July)

On 12th of July Megalodon was drinking huge amounts of vodka while also proudly boasting about the number of shots taken in our group chat that mainly consists of mutual friends of ours where we play games. Now while I know alcohol can make people act not like themselves, to me being in a state of intoxication is not a valid excuse to all things he said.
Especially when some people in that group chat are minors

1 - Sexual Remarks to someone who felt uncomfortable given Mega's drunken State.

Now while It's absolutely not my call to act on someone else's behalf due to me not knowing how close mega and that person is. Given the fact that all of the messages I'm about to list below were sent IN THE GROUP CHAT and the person that mega was making sexual remarks to, clearly stated that he doesn't trust drunk people and the constant ignoring of mega's messages makes me think that at that current time, mega was making that person uncomfortable (yes the same group chat with some minors in it)

Mega Never made any advancements or sexual remarks towards any minor. Only Adults.

Red = adult

yellow = adult

other colors = other people in the gc that he doesn't interact with other than insults

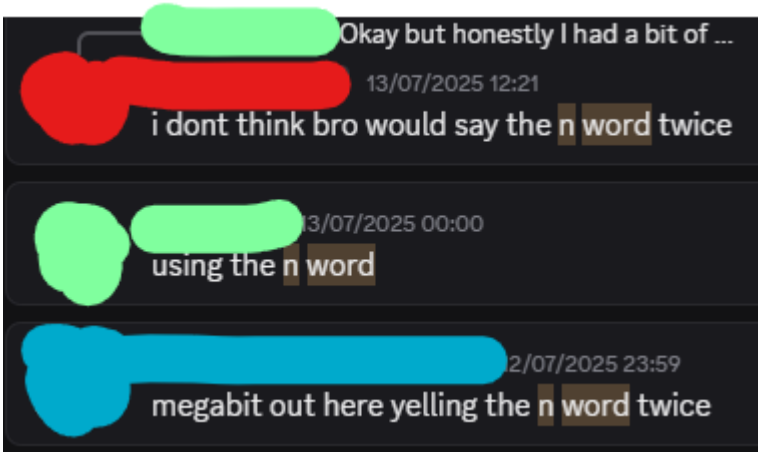
Message nr.6

There are more messages like these but due to their similarity I won't list all of them to not take 5 pages with the same messages. As I said I don't have any idea how close Mega and that person is, but saying stuff like this in a group chat of 9 people for everyone to see including some minors is not okay.

2 - N word usage

At around midnight between 12th and 13th of July, 4 people including mega, me and 2 other mutual friends were playing forsaken in a VC. While one guy had to eventually go. Megalodon decided the best source of expressing himself in the vc and chat would be to use the N word both in VC and in chat.



Okay but honestly I had a bit of ...
13/07/2025 12:21
i dont think bro would say the n word twice 13/07/2025 00:00
using the n word
12/07/2025 23:59
megabit out here yelling the n word twice ^ While Megalodon deleted his text messages, people's reaction in the gc still is undeleted, one of the people in this screenshot is a staff member of a discord server mega was in.

Now for the voice chat messages he said:

(copy discord media link or download it if you wish to listen, warning n word slurs.. don't post in public servers or you will most likely get banned)

"Me: What did you to Denmark bro?
Megalodon: You're a fucking [N slur]
Chaos Ensues
Me: What did he just say?
Megalodon: You're a fucking [N slur] (again)
Our friend: Did you hear it?
Me: Yes, Mega, no, you can't say that Megalodon: Shut the fuck up I can say whatever I want"

Mind you that neither me or our friend encouraged him to do so, it was completely out of random and all the laughter was out of pure confusion on why he said that.

"Megalodon: Tell me, how can I be so fucking bad in this game me: I think you have a drunk debuff, that's why
Megalodon: What do you mean drunk debuff? it's a buff you fucking [f slur], how can you not tell it's a fucking buff.
Our friend: There he goes again.
Me: No,Mega pls who are you even talking to? you are on like bigass 20 minute monologue
Megalodon: Shut the fuck up, you fucking [n word] , " “Megalodon: Fuck you mean? they can call us like white people, but I can’t call them [n slur] but they can call us white?

Me: [Laugh] But we are white
Megalodon: How is that fair?
our friend: [Laugh]
me: All of us are white
Megalodon: How is that fair man, how is that fair.. like we should be able to call them [n word] and [inaudible]”

There’s more examples of the N word usage out mega during the VC but I’m honestly tired of having to listen to the same word on over 10 different occasions so I’ll stop at 4 clips. Neither me or our friend used that word at all throughout the 2 hour voice chat session, it was out of his own drunken volition. All the laughter was caused by mega in that VC being on a big monologue throughout almost the entire voice chat and almost any absurdity that would go out of his mouth would cause us to laugh.
While I don’t have this situation recorded, Megalodon on one occasion would also try to encourage me to say the n word in polish which I refused.
We condemn usage of this word.
However it didn’t stop at that.

3 - Mentions of Rape

I don’t have any explanation for it, other than the fact that megalodon016 on some occasions during said voicechat would mention the act of raping someone… (Me in particular)

“Megalodon: Oh It’s YOU! Fuck you! I Will fuck you in the ass, come here
Me: No, go away, you will die again if you do that, go away
Megalodon: I will fuck you in the ass, just stop me: [Muted due to privacy] Help
Megalodon: Just stop, I will fuck you in the ass, stop, just stop me:no, I’m gonna get raped. [muted due to privacy] Help.
Megalodon: yes you will, and you have to accept it”

Worst one of them all, I don’t even wanna type what happened in there with text because it is THAT bad. Listen at your own risk.

While all of this can be just explained as a drunk person trying to be funny, the jokes are often just slurs, insults and threats…
And this also proves that I wouldn’t want to be in the same room as mega if he happened to be drinking.
He did show regret about his excessive drinking when he was about to go to sleep.

Now this brings us to the 2nd day where the entire situation of megalodon/megabit leaving every server and unfriending everyone on roblox happened.

Part 2 - Megalodon Sobers up… and It’s not any better (13th and 14th of July).

This part will entirely focus on what happened right before Megalodon decided to leave every server possible. It happened again, around midnight between 13th and 14th of July where megalodon016 was much more sober, if not completely sober compared to the previous day.

Megalodon was playing forsaken and since he had friends join enabled when I pressed play it put me into his server. Everything was fine until I was the killer and managed to win a game which megalodon didn't like expressing how "oh, you joined egg, I was starting to have fun, ngl" (mind you he was the 2nd one last to die in that game so it's not like I exclusively targeted him.)

Eventually one of our mutuals joined the game as well and when it was finally megalodon's turn to play the killer. He lost to both of us which he REALLY didn't like happening. He told both of us to go kill ourselves in the group chat (The friend in question is a minor).

MegaBit016 13/07/2025 23:49
I hope you 2 kill yoursleves
ngl fucking sewaty bitches joining should've left the second u 2 joined

After this loss he proceeds to leave our forsaken server and seemingly go do something else.

However what we both didn't expect was megalodon016 joining back with 31 Malice 4 minutes later which he must have bought in a different server, seemingly to get "revenge" for us winning 1 (one) game against him.

^ message he sent after coming back to the server me and our friend was in.

Unfortunately for him, he proceeds to lose the game again, which afterwards he completely loses it and lashes out by unfriending everyone on roblox/unfriending almost everyone from our group chat (even people who were offline at the time) and decides to leave every discord server that he was in… All over 2 forsaken killer losses.

Now, knowing him for years I expected an angry DM from him towards me, yet I was surprised at the lack of it.
However the friend who was with us received it instead. Despite doing nothing to provoke him or anything. Just playing the game.

This is where (in my opinion) the most fucked up part from this entire situation comes in. Just for reference Megalodon016 and the mentioned friend shared a lot of time as friends, even sharing their mental struggles. Him always helping megalodon in time of need… What does megalodon016 say to such a person after losing to him twice in a videogame?

^ Message sent by mega to our friend after losing twice. Mega is almost 21. The mentioned friend is still a minor…

Despite all the support and kindness received by him. The concept of losing twice in a video game against him, makes megalodon attempt to try to hit our friend with words where it would [in his eyes] hurt him the most.

After saying that in dm's our contact with the guy was cut because he unfriended and seemingly blocked the majority of us (members of the group chat) and we haven't heard of him personally since, only remarks of other people still being in contact with him through discord.

While I have no evidence of it, the only possible reason in my eyes why he lashed out in dm's at our friend and not at me was because he saw our friend as more mentally vulnerable that he could lash out at easier than me. a 21 year old lashing out at a minor… brother….

Part 3 - My Personal experience with Megalodon

Megalodon in my years of experience knowing him, always had the "must be best at everything" mentality. Seemingly activated at all times no matter what was being done. Playing games? Making models? Making videos? He had to be the best, if he wasn't he would become much more sad and angry, at times would even lash out and be jealous of more successful people than him if they happened to be in the same field as him (like UGC/Modeling).
For years me and many other friends of his have tried to talk sense into him but at this point… I give up. There's no change ever happening with this guy… This has been happening for years now which me and many have endured, but him trying to hit one of my closest online friends in a place where it would hurt him the most broke the camel's back, If you know megalodon016:
- don't play games with him, if you happen to be better he will be jealous of you and if it's a competitive game he will fully insult you at any win of yours.

- Don’t share your models with the guy if they happened to be better than his, he will be jealous of them
- Don’t share your success at youtube with him, he will be jealous of them
- Don’t share your UGC success on the platform, he will be jealous of them.

Once again, It’s not like me or others haven’t tried to give him advice, to guide him out of this sick jealousy and anger. We’ve known each other for years and it’s always been a problem. At this point, I’m done. He will not escape responsibility for his childish and unacceptable behaviour towards others. Not this time.

I obviously don’t want the guy to do anything drastic to himself… he was still my friend after all, but I think it would be much healthier for him and everyone around him if he stopped using the internet social media…

If you have any questions related to this document, feel free to message me on discord:

cow0730 - my user

If we are not in the same server like TDS/TDX/My server, it may be difficult to contact me so keep that in mind.

And Megalodon, If you are reading this, Do not contact me. You speak so much about how “you deserve more respect from others” when in reality you deserve none with this behaviour of yours. This is a goodbye.
